Health Sciences Division

The Health Sciences Division is dedicated to preparing students for success beyond Rose State College. The Division consists of innovative, nurturing faculty who strive to deliver quality courses that prepare students with the skills and knowledge necessary for academic transfer to other institutions and/or to enter the job market. The adjunct faculty are an integral part of the division and bring work-related experiences, technological skills, applications, and innovative approaches to education into the classroom.

Openings for Adjunct Professor(s) may be available in the following areas of study:
Clinical Laboratory Technology
Dental Assisting
Emergency Medical Technician/Paramedic
Health Information Technology
Nursing Science
Radiologic Technology
Respiratory Therapist

Minimum Qualifications:
Generally a master’s degree in the teaching discipline or a master’s degree with a minimum of 18 graduate hours in the discipline and two years college teaching experience.

Contact Information:
To apply to become an Adjunct Professor at Rose State College, your community college of choice, please submit an application for employment through the Human Resources office. Additional information about adjunct opportunities in the Humanities Division may be obtained by contacting:

Ms. Barbara Baumeister
Associate Dean/Professor
Phone: 733-0208
Email: bbaumeister@rose.edu