Humanities Division

The Humanities Division is dedicated to preparing students for success beyond Rose State College. The Division consists of innovative, nurturing faculty who strive to deliver quality courses that prepare students with the skills and knowledge necessary for academic transfer to other institutions and/or to enter the job market. The adjunct professors are an integral part of the division and bring work-related experiences, technological skills, applications, and innovative approaches to education into the classroom.

Openings for Adjunct Professor(s) may be available in the following areas of study:
