ROSE STATE COLLEGE

Division Course Syllabus

Division: Humanities
Course Prefix and Number: MCOM 2801-3
Course Title: Mass Communication Internship
Semester and Year Submitted: Spring 2014
Credit Hours: Variable
Prepared by: Susan Dawson-O’Brien

Hours Per Week: Class Variable Lab Variable

Course Description (as it appears in Catalog)
Student- or professor-arranged internship in an area of mass communication. May be repeated for a maximum of three (3) credit hours. Permission of professor required.

Prerequisites: Permission of professor

Text(s):
Title: ________________
Author: ________________
Publisher: ________________
Copyright Date: ________________
ISBN #: ________________
Reading Level: ________________

Supplemental Materials: (Other books, audio visual aids, etc.) Variable
Outline for Remainder of Syllabus:

Rationale: This course allows students to further their classroom education in a professional environment, earning college credit while developing their media skills and learning how to function in a media workplace.

Expected Outcomes: Varies with internship environment. Will be specified on student's personalized course of study document.

Methods of Instruction: Varies with internship environment. Will be specified on student's personalized course of study document.

Assessment (Including Critical Thinking measurements): Varies with internship environment. Will be specified on student's personalized course of study document.

Learning Objectives: Varies with internship environment. Will be specified on student's personalized course of study document.