Suggested Study Plan for Rose State College Engineering students that are Undecided about their major and school choice.

This is a suggested study plan to meet requirements of an Engineering Associates Degree (Mechanical/Aerospace Option). The arrows indicate the order in which courses should be taken according to prerequisites. Each student should develop their own study plan which suits their needs, meets the degree requirements listed in the Rose State College Catalogue, and follows prerequisites. (Updated October 2014)