Course Description (as it appears in Catalog)

This course is a continuation of Group Piano 1 and is for the student to develop functional keyboard skills to cope with practical situations at the piano. Each student practices individually, using earphones at an electronic piano. Emphasis is placed on major and minor scales, arpeggios, and chord progressions. Prerequisite: MUS 1402 or previous experience as determined by the instructor.

Outline for Remainder of Syllabus:

Rationale:
An individual aspiring to be a musician and wanting to develop musicianship should have a thorough knowledge of the tools of his craft. Traditionally, the study of the keyboard is an concrete method of applying the theoretical aspects that he is learning and helping to develop sight reading and learning literature.

Additionally, the skill of playing the piano is a valued asset to many aspects of being a musician as a composer, arranger, accompanist, conductor, performer and teacher.

As a community college, this class is also available to non-music majors who seek to learn the skill of playing the piano for their own enjoyment.

Expected Outcomes:
At the end of the course, students will be able to do the following:
1. Develop and demonstrate knowledge of basic reading skills of pitch, rhythm and musical terminology.
2. Play reading and repertoire examples that show development and mastery of musical skills.
3. Develop technical and musicianship skills that include:
   a. Play major scales and white key minor scales in two octaves hand separately with traditional fingering
   b. Play major arpeggios and white key minor arpeggios in two octaves hands separately with traditional fingering
   c. Play the I - IV - V7 chord progressions in root position in the above major and minor keys.
   d. Demonstrate use of the damper pedal
   e. Play triads and inversions in all major and minor keys
   f. Play all types of seventh chords and their inversions
4. Sightread examples that include the musicianship skills learned.
5. Harmonize melodies using the chords learned
6. Play ensembles with the members of the class.
7. Create an improvisation using the musicianship skills learned.

Methods of Instruction:
Traditional/Lecture
Some internet or computer based instruction
Keyboard skills
