Please follow the guidelines listed for your presentation:

Women and Education: Embracing Our Future.

1. Your presentation and bibliography need to be saved in separate files when they are submitted. We will not accept submissions that are not saved separately.

2. You must include a bibliography/Works Cited page of all sources used in your submission. Please use MLA or Chicago Manual of Style for your sources.

3. You may use footnotes or end notes in your presentation.

4. Your presentation must be at least 15 slides, not including your title slide. Suggested software to use is Google Docs which is available on your raider.rose.edu page. You may also use Microsoft Power Point or Publisher.

5. Your project must revolve around the role of education to change women’s lives.

6. The theme is “Women and Education: Embracing Our Future.” You are to select a topic that pertains to women and education. Your topic must revolve around an issue dealing with an aspect of women's lives and the power of education to change women’s lives. For example, sample topics might be:

   - The role of illiteracy and poverty in a specific country or region.
   - The link between illiteracy and birth rates
   - The power of education to change a life
   - Efforts to thwart the education of females
   - Funding for female literacy

For more inspiration, you might look at these websites:
World Education:
http://www.worlded.org/WEIInternet/international/expertise/display.cfm?tid=1004&id=756
UNESCO:  Women and Girls Education:
Right to Education Project:

7. These are all just suggestions. You are free to use your imagination to come up with another suitable topic. If you need further guidance, please contact either Michelle Brockmeier (mbrockmeier@rose.edu) or Tara Hall(tkhall@rose.edu) or Dr. Lizzie Boger (eboger@rose.edu)

Thank you for participating in our scholarship competition.
We look forward to reading your submissions.