Outline for Remainder of Syllabus:

Rationale: This class is designed for the student who is interested in developing their singing abilities and strengthening their knowledge of musical theatre as an art. Additionally, this class would be appropriate for music or theatre students who are interested in expanding their repertoire to include pieces from musical theatre while incorporating elements of acting into their work.

Expected Outcomes: When the student completes the course he/she should, as evaluated by the instructor:

1. Define the physical, emotional, intellectual, and technical skills involved with musical theater performance
2. Display musical theatre terminology
3. Apply all the above in staged musical comedy scenes
4. Rehearse, memorize and perform solos, duets/trios
5. Participate in class production numbers (song and dance)
6. Select, memorize and rehearse one or two audition songs

Methods of Instruction:
1. Lecture and demonstration of basic materials and concepts
2. Discussion of text readings and music
3. Attendance at area theatres.
5. Oral/written critiques of performances and exercises

Assessment (Including Critical Thinking measurements):

1. Grading of individual essays on productions which student has viewed at Rose State College theatre.

2. Evaluation of individual contribution of the student to class reading, discussion, and participation in theatre projects.

3. Objective grading of unit tests, midterm, and of final examination.

4. Class participation and discussion.

5. Journal entries

Learning Goals:
1. Create a character analysis (Expected Outcomes 1, 2, 3)
2. Select appropriate musical theater vocal selections (Expected Outcomes 1, 4, 6)
3. Determine vocal type
4. Determine physical type
5. Provide constructive criticism of self and classmates
